Applying Clean Tax Cuts to Agriculture and Forestry Charrette Design Workshop Draft Agenda 3/24/17

Goals

- 1) Build a baseline understanding of Clean Tax Cuts
- 2) Define what qualifies as "clean" for the sector
- 3) Identify the target taxes and sector investments that present the most effective low hanging fruit
- 4) Identify barriers, opportunities, or knowledge gaps and propose solutions actionable, practical policy proposals or follow up

Agenda

Meeting Room Open with Coffee and Juice
<ul> <li>Welcome, Overview and Introductions</li> <li>Glenn Prickett - The Nature Conservancy</li> <li>Gabriel Thoumi - Climate Advisers</li> <li>Jeff Moyer - Rodale Institute</li> <li>Agenda review - Facilitator</li> <li>Participant introductions</li> </ul>
CTC and Sector Overview - Rod Richardson, Grace Richardson Fund
<ul> <li>Plenary</li> <li>What does clean look like for this sector?</li> <li>Other key questions?</li> <li>Brief overview of proposals for consideration</li> <li>Break out instructions and example of desired output</li> </ul>
Break out Discussions – on Taxes and Sustainability (over working lunch)
<ul> <li>Plenary</li> <li>Report backs and discussion of break out conclusions and recommendations</li> <li>Identify most promising recommendations/ideas to further develop</li> </ul>
Break
Task Groups to Further Develop Recommendations
Plenary Reports from Task Groups
Closing and Next Steps